

Rosário Faria

Masters in Chemical Engineering at the Faculdade de Engenharia da Universidade do Porto, with the classification of 14. (2007)

Executive Course in "Qualify and Developing Human Capital" at Católica Porto Business School, with the classification of 15. (2012)

Executive Course in "Financial Accounting and Performance Evaluation" at Católica Porto Business School, with the classification of 14. (2012)

She acted for Longa Vida – Indústrias Lácteas, S.A., in Planning and Logistics Department, with the following duties: management and development of optimization project for Distribution Warehouse. (2014)

She acted as a Solutions Analyst for Everis, with the following duties: implementation and management of technology and business projects, customer's needs assessment, technical and functional requirements analysis, task planning and presentation of solutions to the customers. (2012-2014)

She acted as a Sales Representative for Siemens S.A. – Healthcare Sector, with the following duties: carrying out the monitoring of commercial projects, involving dissemination of technologies, customer management, drafting and negotiation of proposals and after-sales follow-up. (2007-2010)

She was volunteer for the NGO – Leigos para o Desenvolvimento, in Cuamba, Mozambique where she was responsible for the finance, human resources and activities management of an Educational Center. (2010-2011)